

I am 100% opposed to the consideration of allowing businesses who conduct business with me to call me anytime they want. It is my right to have telephone privacy in my own home. Indiana's no call list is the from the voice of the people. If you side with big business on this matter, you are doing a great disservice to the public you are supposed to be protecting.